

“We jointly designed leadership programs that create smart, confident leaders.”

ALLISON MALONE

Vice President, Culture Development & Marketing
Cobalt Credit Union

Why Cobalt Credit Union partners with Bellevue University to offer valuable education benefits.

“We began our partnership with Bellevue University to offer educational opportunities to our employees that were relevant, affordable, and convenient. Partnering with them was an easy decision because of their large variety of programs, convenient online courses, and the ability to earn college credit for work experience.

That soon grew into customized leadership programs that allow us to strategically evaluate and select coursework we know is essential to being a successful leader in our organization. As a result, we have begun building a group of credit union leaders who are smart, confident, and ready to lead our organization in the future.

Education is critical to our organization and has been for many years. Our partnership with Bellevue University supports that culture.”
